

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors
CLIENT RELATIONSHIP SUMMARY v. September 28, 2022

This is the Client Relationship Summary for Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors, an SEC-Registered Investment Adviser. Brokerage and Investment Advisory services and fees differ, and it is important that you understand those differences.

Free and simple tools are available to you to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

The investment advisory services we provide include portfolio management, financial planning, and the selection of other advisers.

In our portfolio management service, we will continuously monitor your investments and provide advice. If you hire us for financial planning services only, we do not monitor your investments. When we select other advisers for you, their disclosure documents will explain whether they provide continuous monitoring of your investments.

For clients who choose our portfolio management service, we take discretionary authority in your account, which allows us to buy and sell investments in your account without asking you in advance. When we select other advisers for you, their disclosure documents will explain the type of discretion that they take in your account. We do not place trades on behalf of financial planning only clients.

Our minimum account size for new clients is $500,000, although we may allow exceptions in certain cases.

For more information, please review our disclosure brochure, which is available here.

Ask us: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisor service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

We charge a percentage of assets under management for portfolio management services. These fees are assessed on a quarterly basis, in arrears. You should be aware that the higher the value of your account, the more you will pay in fees. This means we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account. However, you may also have an incentive to increase the assets in your account with us because the percentage we charge is reduced at certain levels of account size. If you hire us only for financial planning services, we charge either an hourly or fixed fee. When you pay us only an hourly or fixed fee, it will not include fees for implementing recommendations made. This means we have an incentive to recommend additional advisory services to you, for which additional fees are charged. When we select other advisers for you, their disclosure documents will explain the types of fees they charge for their services. You will also incur other fees, including management fees for sub-advisers, management fees for mutual funds and ETFs, custodian fees, retirement account fees, or banking fees in connection with an investment account and the securities in the account.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce the amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For more information, please review our disclosure brochure, which is available here.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors
CLIENT RELATIONSHIP SUMMARY v. September 28, 2022

Ask us: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors has affiliated persons who are insurance producers, which is a conflict in that, at times, we receive additional compensation, and, at other times, they receive additional compensation for providing these other services to you, which incentivizes us to recommend and provide these other services to you.

Ask us: How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

For more information, please review our disclosure brochure, which is available here.

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our employees receive salaries or hourly wages for the work they perform on your behalf as well as bonuses based on firm profitability. Associate advisors receive compensation based on the amount of client assets they service. Principals receive salaries and distributions of profit. No one at the firm – other than as described – is compensated based upon: the amount of client assets they service; the time and complexity required to meet a client's needs; the product sold (i.e., differential compensation); product sales commissions; or revenue the firm earns from the financial professional's advisory services or recommendations.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No; however, Investor.gov/CRS has a free and simple search tool that allows you to research your financial professionals.

Ask us: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?

You can find more information about our investment advisory services here.

You can also contact us at (702) 433-7588 if you have any questions or to request a copy of the relationship summary.

Ask us: Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?

Item 2 - Material Changes

Annual Update

The Material Changes section of this brochure will be updated annually when material changes occur since the previous release of the Firm Brochure.

Material Changes since the Last Update

Since the Firm's last ADV annual update amendment dated March 16, 2023, the Firm had the following changes:

- Items 10 and 13 – updated to remove reference to an IAR that is no longer with Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors.
- Item 12 – updated to remove all references to TD Ameritrade because of the merger between TD Ameritrade and Schwab. Client accounts that were previously held at TD Ameritrade transferred to Schwab in September 2023.
- Item 17 – updated to reflect the change in policy that Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors no longer votes client proxies.

Item 4 - Advisory Business

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors is an SEC registered investment adviser with its principal place of business located in Nevada. Capstone Capital began conducting business in 2002.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors is owned by Leavitt Holdings LLC and Dawson Holdings LLC. Ronald Leavitt and Adam Dawson are each the sole managing members of their respective holding companies.

As of December 31, 2022, Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors had $313,832,667 in discretionary assets under management.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors offers the following advisory services to our clients:

INVESTMENT SUPERVISORY SERVICES

INDIVIDUAL PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT

Our firm provides continuous advice to a client regarding the investment of client funds based on the individual needs of the client. Through personal discussions in which goals and objectives based on a client's particular circumstances are established, we create and manage a portfolio. During our data-gathering process, we determine the client's individual objectives, time horizons, risk tolerance, and liquidity needs. As appropriate, we also review and discuss a client's prior investment history, as well as family composition and background.

We manage these advisory accounts on a discretionary basis. Discretionary services allow Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors to enter trades in a client's account on client's behalf without prior approval. Account supervision is guided by the client's stated objectives (i.e., maximum capital appreciation, growth, income, or growth and income), as well as tax considerations.

Clients may impose reasonable restrictions on investing in certain securities, types of securities, or industry sectors.

Our investment recommendations are not limited to any specific product or service offered by a broker-dealer or insurance company and will generally include advice regarding the following securities:

- Exchange-listed securities
- Corporate debt securities (other than commercial paper)
- Commercial paper
- Certificates of deposit
- Municipal securities
- Mutual fund shares
- United States governmental securities
- Exchange-traded fund shares

Because some types of investments involve certain additional degrees of risk, they will only be implemented/recommended when consistent with the client's stated investment objectives, tolerance for risk, liquidity, and suitability.

Retirement Rollovers-No Obligation/Conflict of Interest:

At times, Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors may recommend a client roll over assets held in an employer sponsored retirement plan to an IRA managed by the firm. As a result, Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors will receive increased compensation. Capstone Capital Advisors has an economic incentive to encourage an investor to roll plan assets into an IRA that Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors will manage creating a potential conflict of interest.

While Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors may receive increased compensation as a result of a rollover recommendation, the firm will only make these recommendations in the best interest of the client taking into account such various factors as: i.) the investment options available in the plan versus the investment options available in an IRA, ii.) fees and expenses in the plan versus the fees and expenses in an IRA, iii.) the services and responsiveness of the plan's investment professionals versus those of Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors, iv.) required minimum distributions and age considerations, and v.) employer stock tax consequences, if any. No client is under any obligation to roll over plan assets to an IRA managed by Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors.

Occasionally, Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors will refer a client to Efficient Advisors for their managed asset allocation portfolios (Efficient Portfolios) to help manage small company retirement plans. Efficient Portfolios are passively managed models consisting primarily of shares of no-load mutual funds and exchange-traded funds. Clients who accept a referral will enter into an agreement with Efficient Advisors that sets out the discretionary authority a client will grant Efficient to invest client's assets and the fee for their services. Clients are free to accept or reject Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors' recommendation of Efficient Portfolios in the management of their investment account.

FINANCIAL PLANNING

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors focuses on a team approach in all aspects of our clients' finances. In the financial planning services offered, Capstone will coordinate with our clients' other trusted advisors to provide a holistic view of the client's financial plan. Specific services may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following: retirement planning, estate analysis and planning, cash flow and net worth analysis, risk management analysis, asset protection, and philanthropic planning.

WRAP FEE PROGRAM

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors does not offer wrap fee programs.

Item 5 - Fees and Compensation

PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT SERVICES FEES

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors' fee for portfolio management is an annual fee charged in arrears on a quarterly basis, based on the net value of the assets under management on the last business day of the prior quarter, according to the following schedule:

- 1.00% for the first $2,000,000
- 0.75% for the next $3,000,000
- 0.50% for additional assets above $5,000,000

The annual fee will begin upon the date the assets are transferred into the account. In the event we are due our fee for a partial quarter, such as if a client commences or terminates our services in the middle of the quarter, the fee will be prorated. In the event a client makes a significant deposit or withdrawal (25% of the portfolio) in the middle of a quarter, Capstone Capital reserves the right to prorate the fee for the amount deposited or withdrawn without further notice to the client.

Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, the client gives Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors the authority to debit management fees from the client's brokerage accounts. The firm sends clients a billing statement for the amount due each quarter. Clients authorize Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors to debit their fee from available cash or cash equivalents in the brokerage account. If there are not sufficient funds, the client authorizes Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors to liquidate securities for this purpose. It is the client's responsibility to verify the fee calculations accuracy. The account custodian does not determine if a fee is properly calculated.

FINANCIAL PLANNING FEES

Fees for financial planning are determined on a project or hourly basis to meet the needs of each client. Fees may vary depending on services provided, types of issues addressed, longevity of the planning process, and the complexity of end-goals. The hourly rate ranges from $150-250. The typical range of fees is $150-$2,500 with a minimum fee of $150. Accuracy of the estimate is based on all relevant information provided. Fees are due, and are to be paid, at conclusion of the engagement. The cost of each financial plan has the potential to be waived, on a case-by-case basis, with a signed agreement for asset management services by Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors.

Limited Negotiability of Advisory Fees: Although Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors has established the aforementioned fee schedule(s), we retain the discretion to negotiate alternative fees on a client-by-client basis. Client facts, circumstances and needs will be considered in determining the fee schedule. These considerations include the complexity of the client, assets to be placed under management, anticipated future additional assets; related accounts; portfolio style, account composition, reports, among other factors. The specific quarterly fee schedule will be identified in the contract between the adviser and each client. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors may also have legacy clients with existing engagements that have different fees and services than those described here and that are no longer on offer.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Termination of the Advisory Relationship: Any engagement agreement may be canceled at any time without penalty, by either party, for any reason. To initiate a termination, the client must notify Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors in writing. If an agreement is canceled within five business days after the effective date of the agreement a client will receive a full refund of fees. After five days, all fees owed to us for work performed before termination and all credits owed to the client for fees paid that remain unearned at time of termination become due immediately. We reserve the right to value a client's account, prorate the fee and automatically debit the fees owed to us anytime during this termination period. Fees for work completed up to the termination date will not be refunded. We agree to provide investment services and reasonable logistical support in transferring the client's account effectively ending our management of the account. If a client terminates our services and later decides to use our services again, the client will enter into a new agreement.

Mutual Fund Fees: All fees paid to Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and/or EFTs to their shareholders. These fees and expenses are described in each fund's prospectus. These fees will generally include a management fee, other fund expenses, and a possible distribution fee. If the fund also imposes sales charges, a client may pay an initial or deferred sales charge. A client could invest in a mutual fund directly, without our services. In this case, the client would not receive the services provided by our firm which are designed, among other things, to assist the client in determining which mutual fund or funds are most appropriate to each client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the client should review both the fees charged by the funds and our fees to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided.

Additional Fees and Expenses: In addition to our advisory fees, clients are also responsible for the fees and expenses charged by custodians and imposed by broker dealers, including, but not limited to, any transaction charges imposed by a broker dealer when an independent investment manager effects transactions for the client's account(s). Please refer to the "Brokerage Practices" section (Item 12) of this Form ADV for additional information.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors may charge up to $250.00 per hour for work not related to investment advisory services. This fee applies to clients that are not receiving our investment advisory services. This could include asset registration or re-registration or consultation on investments not held at our firm.

Grandfathering of Minimum Account Requirements: Pre-existing advisory clients are subject to Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors' minimum account requirements and advisory fees in effect at the time the client entered the advisory relationship. Therefore, our firm's minimum account requirements will differ among clients. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors reserves the right to waive the minimum dollar value imposed.

ERISA Accounts: Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors is deemed to be a fiduciary to advisory clients that are employees of benefit plans or individual retirement accounts (IRAs) pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income and Securities Act ("ERISA"). As such, our firm is subject to specific duties and obligations under ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code that include among other things, restrictions concerning certain forms of compensation. The way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests, so we operate under a special rule that requires us to act in your best interests and not put our interests ahead of yours. To avoid engaging in prohibited transactions, Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors may only charge fees for investment advice about products for which our firm and/or our related persons do not receive any fees other than Capstone Capital Wealth Advisor's advisory fees.

Referral Fees: When a Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors client enters into an agreement to participate in the Efficient Portfolio Program the client will pay Efficient Advisors a fee. During the time a client participates in the Efficient Portfolio Program Efficient will pay a portion of its management fee for services of Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors. Efficient will collect its management fee directly from the client's account and then remit to Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors its portion of the fee.

Item 6 - Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors does not charge any performance-based fees and does not use side-by-side management.

Item 7 - Types of Clients

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors provides advisory services to the following types of clients:

- Individuals (other than high net worth individuals)
- High net worth individuals
- Pension and profit-sharing plans (other than plan participants)
- Trusts, estates, or charitable organizations
- Corporations or business entities other than those listed

Item 8 - Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

Rather than focusing primarily on securities selection, we attempt to identify an appropriate ratio of securities, fixed income, and cash suitable to the client's investment goals and risk tolerance. We base asset allocation decisions on academic and long-term market research, not economic conditions, or short-term market predictions. We strive to choose mutual funds or ETFs with broad market exposure, low turnover, and low management fees. We also pay close attention to how the holdings of various funds relate to each other, to improve diversification and minimize overlap.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors' investment strategies have a long-term focus and are closely coordinated with each client's specific investment objectives, risk tolerance, investment time horizon and liquidity needs. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors determines and builds the portfolio with the client. The firm adheres to passive asset allocation strategies. If a client already owns certain securities, the appropriateness, constraints and all the other factors are considered in deciding whether to sell them or retain them in the overall investment plan.

We may periodically rebalance client portfolios as markets fluctuate, to bring portfolios back to their original target allocation. Otherwise, portfolio allocations may gradually fall outside the client's risk tolerance.

Securities investments are not guaranteed, and you may lose money on your investments. We ask that you work with us to help us understand your tolerance for risk. Clients should understand that investing in any securities, including mutual funds, involves a risk of loss of both income and principal. The following are some of the investment risks faced by investors:

- Interest-rate Risk: Fluctuations in interest rates may cause investment prices to fluctuate. For example, when interest rates rise, yields on existing bonds become less attractive, causing their market values to decline.
- Market Risk: The price of a security, bond, or mutual fund may drop in reaction to tangible and intangible events and conditions. This type of risk is caused by external factors independent of a security's particular underlying circumstances. For example, political, economic, and social conditions may trigger market events.
- Inflation Risk: When any type of inflation is present, a dollar today will not buy as much as a dollar last year, because purchasing power is eroding at the rate of inflation.
- Currency Risk: Overseas investments are subject to fluctuations in the value of the dollar against the currency of the investment's originating country. This is also referred to as exchange rate risk.
- Reinvestment Risk: This is the risk that future proceeds from investments may have to be reinvested at a potentially lower rate of return (i.e., interest rate). This primarily relates to fixed income securities.
- Business Risk: These risks are associated with a particular industry or a particular company within an industry. For example, oil-drilling companies depend on finding oil and then refining it, a lengthy process, before they can generate a profit. They carry a higher risk of profitability than an electric company, which generates its income from a steady stream of customers who buy electricity no matter what the economic environment is like.
- Liquidity Risk: Liquidity is the ability to readily convert an investment into cash. Generally, assets are more liquid if many traders are interested in a standardized product. For example, Treasury Bills are highly liquid, while real estate properties are not.
- Financial Risk: Excessive borrowing to finance a business' operations increases the risk of profitability, because the company must meet the terms of its obligations in good times and bad. During periods of financial stress, the inability to meet loan obligations may result in bankruptcy and/or a declining market value.

Item 9 - Disciplinary Information

We are required to disclose any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of our advisory business or the integrity of our management. Our firm and our management personnel have no reportable disciplinary events to disclose.

Item 10 - Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Our firm and our related persons are not engaged in other financial industry activities and have no other industry affiliations to disclose other than what is noted below.

Adam Moroni Dawson is a licensed insurance producer through various insurance companies. In such capacity, he may offer insurance products and receive normal and customary commissions resulting from such purchases. In some cases, the firm may receive a portion of the commissions paid directly to him.

Item 11 - Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

Our firm has adopted a Code of Ethics which sets forth high ethical standards of business conduct which we require of our employees, including compliance with applicable federal securities laws.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors and our personnel owe a duty of loyalty, fairness, and good faith towards our clients, and have an obligation to adhere not only to the specific provisions of the Code of Ethics but to the general principles that guide the Code.

Our Code of Ethics includes policies and procedures for the review of quarterly securities transactions reports as well as initial and annual securities holdings reports that must be submitted by the firm's access persons.

A copy of our Code of Ethics is available to our advisory clients and prospective clients. You may request a copy by sending an email to service@capstonecap.com, or by calling us at 702-433-7588.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors does not recommend to clients' securities in which the firm or a related person has a material financial interest in. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors and its access persons, as a matter of policy, do not recommend to clients, or buy or sell for client accounts, securities in which the firm or they have a material financial interest.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors or persons associated with the firm may buy or sell the same securities that the firm recommends to clients or securities in which clients are already invested. A conflict of interest may exist in such cases because Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors can trade ahead of the client and potentially receive more favorable prices than the client will receive. To eliminate this conflict of interest, it is Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors' policy that neither the firm's access persons nor Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors shall have priority over a client's purchase or sale of securities. The firm maintains a list of all reportable securities holdings for our firm, and anyone associated with Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors that has access to advisory recommendations ("access person") and these holdings are reviewed on a regular basis by our firm's Chief Compliance Officer or their designee.

Item 12 - Brokerage Practices

In the event that the client requests that we recommend a broker dealer/custodian for execution and/or custodial services, the firm generally recommends that investment management accounts be maintained at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab"), a registered broker-dealer, member of SIPC, to maintain custody of clients' assets and to effect trades for their accounts. Schwab is independently owned and operated and not affiliated with the firm. Schwab does not supervise or otherwise monitor the firm's investment management services to its clients. Schwab provides us with access to institutional trading and custody services, which typically are not available to Schwab's retail investors. Schwab's services include brokerage, custody, research and access to mutual funds and other investments that are otherwise generally available only to institutional investors or would require a significantly higher minimum initial investment.

Factors that we consider in recommending Schwab or any other broker-dealer/custodian to clients include financial strength, reputation, execution capabilities, pricing, research, and service. Although the commissions and/or transaction fees paid by our clients shall comply with our duty to obtain best execution, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction. The firm, in good faith, believes that the commission/transaction fees charged are reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of broker-dealer services, including the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although we will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client account transactions. The brokerage commissions or transaction fees charged by the designated broker-dealer/custodian are exclusive of, and in addition to, the firm's investment management fee.

Although not a material consideration when determining whether to recommend that a client utilize the services of a particular broker-dealer/custodian, the firm may receive from Schwab (or another broker-dealer/custodian) without cost (and/or at a discount) support services and/or products, of which assist us to better monitor and service client accounts maintained at such institutions. Included within the support services that may be obtained by the firm may be investment-related research, pricing information and market data, software and other technology that provide access to client account data, compliance and/or practice management-related publications, discounted or gratis consulting services, discounted and/or gratis attendance at conferences, meetings, and other educational and/or social events, marketing support, computer hardware and/or software and/or other products used by us in furtherance of its investment advisory business operations.

As indicated above, certain of the support services and/or products that may be received may assist the firm in managing and administering client accounts. Others do not directly provide such assistance, but rather assist the firm to manage and further develop its business enterprise.

Our clients do not pay more for investment transactions effected and/or assets maintained at Schwab as a result of this arrangement. There is no corresponding commitment made by us to Schwab or any other any entity to invest any specific amount or percentage of client assets in any specific mutual funds, securities, or other investment products as result of the above arrangement.

The firm's Chief Compliance Officer is available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above arrangement and any corresponding perceived conflict of interest such arrangement may create.

The firm does not receive referrals from broker-dealers; nor engage in directed brokerage arrangements.

To the extent that the firm provides investment management services to its clients', the transactions for each client account generally will be affected independently, unless the firm decides to purchase or sell the same securities for several clients at approximately the same time. The firm may, (but is not obligated to), combine or "bunch" such orders to obtain best execution, to negotiate more favorable commission rates, or to allocate equitably among the firm's clients differences in prices and commissions or other transaction costs that might have been obtained had such orders been placed independently. Under this procedure, transactions will be averaged as to price and will be allocated among clients in proportion to the purchase and sale orders placed for each client account on any given day. We shall not receive any additional compensation or remuneration resulting from such aggregation.

Schwab provides clients with consolidated statements. Our employees are not registered representatives of Schwab and do not receive any commissions or fees from recommending these services.

Item 13 - Review of Accounts

INDIVIDUAL PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT REVIEWS

While the underlying securities within Individual Portfolio Management Services accounts are continually monitored, these accounts are reviewed at least annually. Accounts are reviewed in the context of each client's stated investment objectives and guidelines. More frequent reviews may be triggered by material changes in variables such as the client's individual circumstances, or the market, political or economic environment.

These accounts are reviewed by Ronald K. Leavitt / Principal and Adam M. Dawson / Principal. In addition to the statements and confirmations of transactions clients receive from their custodian at least quarterly, we provide quarterly statements summarizing account performance, balances, and holdings.

Item 14 - Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Our firm may pay referral fees to independent persons or firms for introducing clients to us. Under the agreement between the firm and the referring person or firm, we will compensate them with a portion of our advisory fee for persons referred to us who become a client for as long as the client relationship with us exists. We maintain this arrangement in accordance with applicable state and federal laws.

As a matter of firm practice, the advisory fees paid to us by clients referred to us under these arrangements are not increased because of the referral arrangement.

Capstone Capital has entered into an agreement with Efficient Advisors to refer some clients to their Efficient Portfolios and as a result will receive a share of the client's fee paid to Efficient Advisors. Efficient pays a portion of its management fee to Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors for further credit to the Investment Adviser Representative responsible for servicing the client.

Item 15 – Custody

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors does not accept or maintain physical custody of any client cash or securities. All clients' assets are held at an independent qualified custodian. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors will only have custody of assets to the extent it deducts its advisory fees from client accounts and in the use of Standing Letters of Authorization (SLOA's) for third-party money movement. As previously disclosed in the "Fees and Compensation" section (Item 5) of this Brochure, clients give Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors the authorization to directly deduct the firm's fee from their account held at the independent custodian. As part of this billing process, the client's custodian is advised by Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors of the amount of the fee to be deducted from the client's account. On at least a quarterly basis, the custodian is required to send to the client a statement showing all transactions within the account during the reporting period, including the deduction of Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors' fee.

Because the custodian does not calculate the amount of the fee to be deducted, it is important for clients to carefully review their custodial statements to verify the accuracy of the calculation, among other things. Clients should contact us directly if they believe there may be an error in their statement.

For SLOA's: All transfers from client custodial accounts to third party accounts will be preceded or accompanied by client written authorization. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors will ensure that the SLOA will satisfy the requirements needed to avoid the need for the surprise annual audit for third-party money transfers and will contain the specific information needed to avoid custody when using a SLOA for a first-party money transfer.

Account Statements

Clients will receive at least quarterly account statements from the broker-dealer, bank or other qualified custodian that holds and maintains client's investment assets detailing the assets in the account and any transactions-including fee deductions.

Performance Reports

In addition to the account statements the clients receive directly from their custodians, we also send reports directly to our clients on a quarterly basis. We urge our clients to carefully compare the information provided on these statements to ensure all account transactions, holdings and values are correct and current. If you are not receiving at least quarterly custodial account statements, please contact us at the number on the

Item 16 - Investment Discretion

Clients may hire us to provide discretionary asset management services, in which case we place trades in a client's account without contacting them prior to each trade to obtain the client's permission.

Our discretionary authority includes the ability to do the following without contacting the client:

- determine the security to buy or sell; and/or
- determine the amount of the security to buy or sell and process the order

Clients give us discretionary authority when they sign a discretionary agreement on the new account document and in the Investment Management Agreement with our firm and may limit this authority by giving us written instructions. Clients may also change/amend such limitations by once again providing us with written instructions.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors requires it be provided with written authority to determine which securities and the amounts of securities that are bought or sold in a client's account.

Item 17 - Voting Client Securities

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisor no longer accepts the authority to vote proxies on securities or provides advice about how to vote proxies for securities held in client portfolios. Clients retain the responsibility for receiving and voting proxies for any and all securities maintained in their accounts. Clients should receive proxies or other similar solicitations directly from the client's selected custodian or transfer agent. Should we receive a duplicate copy, we generally do not forward it to the Client. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors will have no power, authority, responsibility, or obligation to take any action with regard to any claim or potential claim in any bankruptcy proceeding, class action securities litigation or other litigation or proceeding relating to securities held at any time in a client account, including without limitation, to file proofs of claim or other documents related to such proceeding, or to investigate, initiate, supervise, or monitor class action or other litigation involving client assets. Further, we will not offer or provide guidance on these matters, clients should contact the issuer or their legal counsel.

For accounts established prior to October 2023, Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors has responsibility for voting proxies for portfolio securities consistent with the best economic interests of the clients. Clients can request information about how securities were voted by contacting the firm, and, in response, we will provide a written response to the client with the information requested.

Item 18 - Financial Information

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors does not require or solicit pre-payment of fees more than $1,200 per client, for services to be provided six months or more in advance. Therefore, we are not required to include a financial statement.

As an advisory firm that maintains discretionary authority for client accounts or is deemed to have custody, we are also required to disclose any financial condition reasonably likely to impair our ability to meet our contractual obligations. Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors has no additional financial circumstances to report.

Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition within the past ten years.

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Full Legal Name: Adam Moroni Dawson Born: 1974

Education:

- B.A.; Brigham Young University, 2000

Business Experience:

- Capstone Capital Wealth Advisors; Principal; 05/2016 to Present
- Park Avenue Securities; Financial Advisor; 2008- 2016
- LPL Financial; Financial Advisor; 2007-2008
- Park Avenue Securities; Financial Advisor; 2004-2007
- Securities Management and Research; Financial Advisor; 2001-2004

Designations:

Adam Moroni Dawson has earned the following certification and is in good standing with the granting authority:

- CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional

Mr. Dawson is certified for financial planning services in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”). Therefore, he may refer to himself as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional or a CFP® professional, and he may use these and CFP Board’s other certification marks (the “CFP Board Certification Marks”). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.CFP.net. CFP® professionals have met CFP Board’s high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics.

To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Earn a bachelor’s degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirement through other qualifying credentials. CFP Board implemented the bachelor’s degree or higher requirement in 2007 and the financial planning development capstone course requirement in March 2012. Therefore, a CFP® professional who first became certified before those dates may not have earned a bachelor’s or higher degree or completed a financial planning development capstone course.

- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination is designed to assess an individual’s ability to integrate and apply a broad base of financial planning knowledge in the context of real-life financial planning situations.
- Experience – Complete 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the personal financial planning process, or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.
- Ethics – Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct (“Code and Standards”), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements to remain certified and maintain the right to continue to use the CFP Board Certification Marks:

- Ethics – Commit to complying with CFP Board’s Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional's services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

Privacy Policy

Capstone Capital Group requires that you provide current and accurate financial and personal information. Capstone Capital Group will protect the information you have provided in a manner that is safe, secure and professional. Capstone Capital Group and its employees are committed to protecting your privacy and to safeguarding that information.

Safeguarding Customer Documents

We collect non-public customer data in checklists, forms, in written notations, and in documentation provided to us by our customers for evaluation, registration, licensing or related consulting services. We also create internal lists of such data.

During regular business hours access to customer records is monitored so that only those with approval may access the files. During hours in which the company is not in operation, the customer records will be locked.

No individual who is not so authorized shall obtain or seek to obtain personal and financial customer information. No individual with authorization to access personal and financial customer information shall share that information in any manner without the specific consent of a firm principal. Failure to observe Capstone Capital Group procedures regarding customer and consumer privacy will result in discipline and may lead to termination.

Sharing Nonpublic Personal and Financial Information

Capstone Capital Group is committed to the protection and privacy of its customers' and consumers' personal and financial information. Capstone Capital Group will not share such information with any affiliated or nonaffiliated third party except:

- When necessary to complete a transaction in a customer account, such as with the clearing firm or account custodians;
- When required to maintain or service a customer account;
- To resolve customer disputes or inquiries;
- With persons acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of the customer;
- With rating agencies, persons assessing compliance with industry standards, or to the attorneys, accountants and auditors of the firm;
- In connection with a sale or merger of Capstone Capital Group business;
- To protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud, identity theft, unauthorized transactions, claims or other liability;
- To comply with federal, state or local laws, rules and other applicable legal requirements;
- In connection with a written agreement to provide investment management or advisory services when the information is released for the sole purpose of providing the products or services covered by the agreement;
- In any circumstances with the customer's instruction or consent; or
- Pursuant to any other exceptions enumerated in the California Information Privacy Act.

Opt-Out Provisions

It is not a policy of Capstone Capital Group to share nonpublic personal and financial information with affiliated or unaffiliated third parties except under the circumstances noted above. Since sharing under the circumstances noted above is necessary to service customer accounts or is mandated by law, there are no allowances made for clients to opt out.
